My dream is to become a professional photographer. I want to have this job since I want to show everybody how beautiful the world really is. I think this job is full of opportunities because it allows you to travel to lots of wonderful places from all around the world and also is offering the chance to meet a lot of wonderful people, different cultures, religions and traditions that you never think they exist.

A beautiful part about this job is that you can transmit with every different picture a different emotion, a different idea or a different sensation that can put a smile on every face, that can make someone remember the happiest moment in their life or that can change their mood completely in just a second or less.
