Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions from 24 to 28.

Indonesia is a group of islands covered with tropical rainforests. For many years, Indonesians have used wood to build their homes. Most of the old houses have wooden frames, walls and floors.

Local people have cleared land for farming, and loggers have cut down miles of trees to sell the wood to other countries. Now there is a serious shortage of trees.

Nowadays, in Indonesia's rural areas, many of the houses are built on stilts. They raise the houses up, keep the living area off the wet soil, and also keep the houses from flooding during the rainy season. Some people still live in houses with only one room, and some of these houses do not have electricity or running water, but they cannot afford to improve their housing.

In Indonesian cities, more and more people live in crowded apartment buildings. However, it is hard for people to find good housing. The electricity often goes out throughout these whole buildings. Moreover, landlords do not want to rent their property to poor people, and banks do not want to lend them money to buy homes.

Because of its location, natural disasters such as floods, droughts, earthquakes and forest fires frequently occur, which destroys buildings and leaves people homeless. These disasters affect people both in the city and in the country.

Question 24: What can be the title for the passage?

- A. Indonesia's housing problems
- B. Indonesia's culture
- C. Indonesia's economy
- D. Indonesia's development

Question 25: What does the word "them" in paragraph 3 refer to?

- A. poor people
- B. rich people
- C. old people
- D. sick people

Question 26: What makes poor people difficult to find houses in cities of Indonesia?

- A. Lack of natural disasters
- B. Lack of trees
- C. Lack of electricity or running water
- D. Lack of financial support from banks

Question 27: The word "shortage" in paragraph 1 is closest in meaning to _____.

- A. excess
- B. abundance
- C. lack
- D. richness

Question 28: Which of the following is NOT true about the purpose of stilts?

- A. They raise the houses up.
- B. They make the house more expensive.
- C. They keep the houses from flooding during the rainy season.
- D. They keep the living area off the wet soil.
