When you wake up in the morning, do you assume that you're going to have a great day or that you're going to have a difficult day? If you normally have positive expectations, you might consider yourself an (27)_____, and if your expectations are usually negative, you may be a pessimist. According to research done by the Mayo Clinic, optimism can have a strong positive effect (28)_____ your health. Their research shows that optimists may live longer, get colds less often, and be less likely to suffer from cardiovascular disease. Optimists may even deal with stress better than pessimists do.

If your 'self-talk' (the automatic thoughts that go through your head all the time) is negative, there are some things you can do to steer it in a more (29)_____ direction. First, you can simply stop your negative 'self-talk'. Every time you catch yourself thinking something negative, you can stop yourself by actually saying "Stop," out loud. Alternatively, you can revise your 'self-talk'. (30)_____, if you catch yourself saying, "I'm terrible at giving presentations," revise that to a question like, "How can I improve my presentation skills?" Another idea is to think of yourself as a friend. When you 'hear' a negative sentence go through your mind, think about whether or not you would feel comfortable saying it to a friend. If the sentence seems too mean to say to a friend, think about what would sound better.

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions from 31 to 35.

Do you know that artists can turn a pavement into a masterpiece? This is why people love this kind of art. Appearing each February with the support of artists and volunteers, the Lake Worth Street Painting Festival is probably the largest free festival of its kind in the world.

With its origins in 16th century Italy, the street art tradition's primary contributors were the Madonnari, a group of traveling artists that drew chalk images of the Madonna. Locally, the street painting traditions began in 1994 by a small group of residents aiming to improve the community through art. Now in its third decade, the festival attracts 100,000 visitors each year.

The festival includes live music, professional street art, a food court, and hands on art activities for kids. Artists from across Florida, and even a few from as far away as California and Canada, have arrived to showcase their work. Artists come together, using chalk as their instruments. They turn the streets of Lake Worth into a huge gallery with large-scale traditional and contemporary art.

This beloved festival is enjoyed by children along with their parents. Children of all ages are given the opportunity to create their own art alongside the hired artist, creating their own masterpieces. Their contribution to the city will last until the next rainfall, potentially several weeks.

Question 31: What is the best title of the passage?

- A. Street art - Graffiti      B. The Lake Worth Street Painting Festival
 C. Yarn bombing              D. A masterpiece of Madonna
