

UNIT 6

H. WRITING

- maintain	/meɪn'teɪn/	(v)	một mục khẳng định điều gì là đúng
------------	-------------	-----	------------------------------------

Your school recently organized an open day for the English Club. Write a blog post about it for the school website. Use the outline and prompts below.

Paragraph 1

- Where and when did the introductory meeting of the English club take place?
  - last Sunday morning, at the school auditorium from 8 o'clock in the morning, with over 40 members.

Paragraph 2

- Why did we start the English Club?
  - a place for students to use English in a casual setting
  - get a chance to practice many different skills in a setting that is more like real life
  - feel more comfortable using English with friendly students from other classes; certainly have a lot of fun.

Paragraph 3

- What happened during the first meeting?
  - members/ learn each other's names/ discuss the way to organise the club
  - organise the club by voting and choosing the boards or readers, putting in the agenda the themes (music, travel, food...) and skills (reading, writing, listening...)
  - also discussed the rules and routines the club have: an "English only" rule, what about bringing a friend, conducting each club meeting in a similar way...

Paragraph 4

- What did you think of the first meeting? What will you do after that?
  - a great success; have a good time
  - post the agenda of the coming meeting on the library bulletin board with the email address at the top; your school friends can email you with any ideas they might have.
  - even want to find a fluent English speaker who will volunteer to come to your meetings

Last Sunday morning, we organized an introductory meeting of

.....
 .....
 .....

An English Club is a place

.....

.....
.....

At the first meeting, members

.....
.....
.....

In my view, the day was

.....
.....
.....

--- THE END ---