| Georgina Hepworth relaxed back in her seat. Two hours into her flight, she turned to the woman next to he and said, 'I'm really looking forward to my (1) in Spain.' 'Oh, when are you going to Spain then?' asked the woman. 'Well, now, of course!' said Georgina. The woman looked puzzled. 'Not on the plane,' she replied. That's when Georgina (2) out that her plane wasn't heading for Granac in Spain, but for the island of Grenada, in the Caribbean. The Spanish city is (3) km south of London. The island is 7,000 km away on the other side of the Atlantic.  When Georgina decided to go to Spain, she called a travel agent to book the flight. When the tickets arrived she didn't notice that one letter was wrong. 'It said GrEnada, not GrAnada,' Georgina explained. The flight attendant was very (4), and allowed Georgina to sit in a first-class seat. When the plane final arrived in the Caribbean, the airline put her in a hotel for the night and then, on the following day, flew her to Granada in Spain.  The travel agent apologised. 'It was just a misunderstanding,' said Georgina. 'I'm (5) necomplaining. They've even given me a free holiday in Austria. Let's hope they don't send me a ticket to Australia!''
