PART VI – Reading Comprehension

Read the passage and choose the best answer to each of the questions.

In Britain, wedding invitations go out about six weeks before the wedding day. The guests reply as soon as possible to say if they can come or not. Choosing a present for the couple can be difficult. People don't take their presents for the wedding. They send them to the woman's house before the wedding day. Most weddings take place before lunch or in the early afternoon. Many people like to get married in church. The bride often wears a long white dress. Guests wear their best clothes and most of the women wear hats. In the church, the bride's family sits on the left and the groom's one sits on the right. Married people wear their wedding rings on the third finger of the left hand. Most married women wear wedding rings, but married men often do not.

1: When do the British have to send wedding invitations?

Read the passage and choose the best answer to each of the questions.

The most important celebration holiday in China is the New Year. At this time shops are closed. The people celebrate by feasting, by paying friendly calls to their neighbors, and by visiting the temples to make promises for the New Year. Children parade through the streets carrying colorful lanterns and paper figures. Firecrackers similar to those used in the United States on the Fourth of July are set off. In fact, on the night that the New Year's celebration begins, the exploding fireworks make so much noise that no one is able to sleep.

The time of the New Year is also the time at which Chinese people refresh their homes. For example, the windows, which are made of thick rice paper, are torn down, and new ones are put up. This is also the time during which people pay their debts. Every man tries to settle all his bills before the beginning of the New Year.

5: No one is able to sleep on the night that the New Year's celebration begins because _____.

- A. fireworks make noise B. they pay their debts
C. their children carry colorful lanterns and paper figures. D. they explode fireworks

Read the passage and choose the best answer to each of the questions.

The population of the world has increased more in the modern times than in all other ages of history combined. World population totaled about 500 million in 1650. It doubled in the period from 1650-1850. Today the population is over seven billion. Estimates based on research by the United Nations indicate that it will increase to over 10 billion by the turn of the century.

With recent advances in science and technology, including improved agricultural methods and great strides in medicine, some of the limiting factors in population growth have been lessened, with obvious results. International organizations have put forward several recommendations to alleviate the problem of overpopulation, including an increase in food production, general economic development in target areas, and a decrease in birth rates. Most experts agree that it will be necessary to combine all these recommendations in an effort to affect a lasting solution.

13: The best title for the ideas in the passage is _____.

- A. The United Nations' Estimate
- B. Limiting Factors in Population Growth
- C. Ways to end population explosion

- A. Great strides in medicine have helped to reduce the death-rate.
- B. The population decreased dramatically in the period from 1650-1850.
- C. The population of the world has increased more in the modern times.
- D. A decrease in birth rates is one of the three recommendations in an effort to affect a lasting solution.

15: What have helped to lessen the limiting factors in population growth?

- A. drawbacks of science
- B. improved technology
- C. weak cultural methods
- D. lack of medicine.

16: What do most experts recommend in order to solve problems of overpopulation?

- A. Conservation of available resources
- B. Famine and epidemic
- C. Medical advances and improved agricultural methods
- D. Economic development and a decrease in the birth rate
